John Bunyan's Immortal Allegory

PROBABLY no book, save the Bible has been so extensively read as Bunyan's inimitable allegory

The Pilgrim's Progress.

It has been translated into nearly all the different languages of Christendom, and been perused with delight and holy fervor by all nations As has lent her attractions in nearly all the forms of illustration, from the rough Wood Cut to the exquisite Steel Engraving But to the middle of the nineteenth century and to an American clergyman, are we indebted for the only pictorial conception of this immortal work

The novel and sublime idea of embodying the entire story, and transferring the same to a single picture showing the vicissitudes of Christian from the 'City of Destruction' to the Celestial City presenting at one view to the eye the varied scenes through which he passed, originated with Rev DANIEL WIGHT of Massachusetts His truly original and beautiful conception was reduced to a most elegant design by HAMMATT BILLINGS, and from this design JOSEPH ANDREWS the distinguished historical engraver, has produced after four years of labor, a picture which will take rank among the most superb and elaborate productions of human genius test and skill

The picture is now ready and will be offered at the Bookstore of the Publishers, and by Agents duly appointed by the Publishers

of which they are made to know and feel enough His mode of treatment is his own peculiar property In a moment of time disease is arrested in its progress,—symptoms as quickly disappear,—the monster with his legion is made to exit in a few hours without the use of mercury or drugs usually administered — the patient is sent on his way with a light heart,—his purse not much the worse, and, best of all, his constitution not impaired by the course he has passed through

To the mechanical, mariner and laboring classes, this is just what they want —all the time and means are required for the ordinary demands of life To the more favored a few days may seem of little value, and a few dollars lightly thought of Health, however, becomes endeared to all, if once lost.

The Sabbath.

BY SIR E BULWER LYTTON

Fresh glides the brook and blows the gale,
Yet yonder halts the quiet mill;
The whirling wheel, the rushing sail,
How motionless and still!

Six days of toil, poor child of Cain,
Thy strength the slave of Want may be;
The seventh thy limbs escape the chain—
A God hath made thee free!

Ah tender as the Law that gave
This holy respite to the breast,
To breath the gale, to watch the wave,
And know—the wheel may rest!

But where the waves the gentlest glide
What image charms, to lift thine eyes?
The spire reflected on the tide
Invites thee to the skies.

To teach the soul its nobler worth
This rest from mortal toils is given;
Go, snatch the brief reprieve from earth
And pass—a guest to heaven.

They tell thee, in their dreaming school,
Of Power from old dominion hurled,
When rich and poor, with juster rule,
Shall share the altered world.

Alas! since time itself begun,
That fable hath but fooled the hour;
Each age that ripens Power in Man,
But subjects Man to power

Yet every day in seven, at least,
One bright republic shall be known;
Man's world awhile hath surely ceast,
When God proclaims his own!

Six days may Rank divide the poor,
O Dives, from thy banquet hall—
The seventh the Father opes the door,
And holds His feast for all!

Be True to Thyself.

These words ought to be engraved with the point of a diamond upon every heart, and printed in letters of fire so that he who runs may read They embody more of philosophy, morality and religion than any other four words in the English language—more than mortal ever put in practice They comprise the whole law of duty to self, to our fellow beings and to our Creator, for he who is true to himself cannot be false to others or to God To be true to our own convictions of right, true to the dictates of our better judgments, true to the instincts of our own hearts, is to be all that humanity can be—it is ideal manhood. As perfect truthfulness is the height of human attainment, so is falsehood to one's self the greatest sin—that which underlies all others. The most trivial faults as well as the worst crimes are examples of falseness to our better natures. We cannot do wrong without disregarding that "still, small voice" within us, which, despite our attempts to stifle it, ever whispers us on to purity, goodness and truth

Be true to thyself! Whatever others may say, never fear to act decidedly and manfully as conscience directs If you yield your own convictions of duty to please another, you make yourself something less than a man—the tool and slave of one whose teachings are in opposition to the voice of God within you If you depart knowingly in a single instance from the path of right, you are false to yourself and have no surety for the future

Be true to thyself! In other words, maintain at all hazards your own self-respect—cling to it as your best safe guard from temptation, as your firmest support in all situations Self Respect! what is it but the consciousness of acting from high motives, and discharging with a single aim the duties of life. It is the assurance we have within ourselves that we have been true to the work which has been given us to do. Lose it, and every thing is lost; cherish it and you have every thing to hope for. lose it, and your path will be strewed thick with thorns and your bed with nettles, retain it, and you may walk in your Eden at the cool of the day and listen to the approving tones which will be wafted to you on the still evening air.

Be true to thyself! You cannot trust to another, even though he be wiser than yourself, to guide your course For what purpose was a mind given you, but to think for yourself, to reason for yourself and to decide for yourself? Take counsel from the wise and good, from the plant which, in obedience to its own laws, produces in its season the blade, the flower and the seed, but most of all, with your own conscience, for by that must you stand or fall.

Be true to thyself! Does your heart prompt you to an act of kindness or sympathy? Do as you would be done by, and though the object of your charity prove ungrateful, you will still have your reward in the satisfaction of having felt kindly and acted sincerely. Have others been false to you? Do not make yourself equally base by betraying their trust now that they no longer merit your confidence, but rather show your honor and superiority by maintaining your integrity, and being ever true of yourself Have those from whom you expected kindness been harsh toward you? Show your contempt for their treatment by carefully avoiding their error, and thus heap coals of fire on their heads

Be true to thyself? When convinced that you have been in the wrong, do not hesitate to acknowledge your mistake, for he who confesses to the shortcomings of yesterday, proves himself wiser to-day. He who endeavors to sustain a false position, is a traitor to his own conscience, plays the hypocrite to himself, and will eventually expose his own baseness, and lose not only his own self-respect but the confidence and esteem of those who know him.

Be true to thyself! There are those who make their whole lives a perpetual lie Their words belie their thoughts, their acts are a libel on their motives, their tongues drop with honey when their hearts overflow with gall The smiles upon their features and the treachery which lurks in their eyes are constantly playing at cross purposes, outwardly they are whited sepulcres, fair to look upon, inwardly they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. Like Judas, they cry, Hail Master! and kiss those they would betray and murder. As you loathe a character of this stamp, avoid falseness to yourself, as you would "the worm of the still." The first act of self treachery is a poison in the blood, which taints your whole being and plants corroding remorse in the very centre of your soul!

Be true to thyself! So will you make your life happy, harmonious, beautiful. This world is false only to those who are false to themselves It is full of discord only to those who never turn their heart to the chords of truth. It is full of deformity only to those who make their spirits the abodes of evil. Then let him who, while he journeys through this else dark world, would have his pathway strewn with flowers, and lighted by that undying flame which issues from the throne of God, study his own nature, reflect upon its mysterious organism, learn its wants, and first of all, be true to himself.

Who will be Governor?

The Bangor Union takes a plain common sense view of the question, Who shall be the next Governor of Maine? which has been discussed in various forms and from various points of view, and with diversified objects, by a portion of the press of Maine of all parties. Each section has reasoned the matter all out to their entire satisfaction that the candidate of its choice must certainly be Governor, and not an inch must be yielded—not a vote be allowed to stray. This all seems very well, on paper, but the difficulty is, that neither section has sufficient votes in the Legislature to accomplish this.

When the Legislature comes together the duty before them will be to organize the government, and if they cannot have everything precisely to their liking, they must do the best they can for the welfare of the State, instead of setting up a dogged obstinacy to have things their own way, or prevent an organization. If they should so conduct as to fail in effecting an organization they will place themselves in an uncomfortable position before the people—much more uncomfortable than that of electing some man for Governor who does not in all things square with their strict political doctrines.

The Union says:

The constitution contemplates that cases may arise of failure of electing a full Senate and a Governor, and points out the way in which the Legislature shall proceed to organize the Government. The manner in which it shall be done is prescribed in the constitution. The settling of the question, as to what influences shall predominate in the administration is altogether practical in its character, and to be settled by the representatives themselves in the exercise of a sound discretion. No conductor of the press, is capable of giving information to the Representatives on these points. It is certain that no one party has the ascendency in the Legislature, and it follows that the government can only be organized by the uniting of two parties. If each party in the Legislature should insist upon adhering to its own organization, vote for none but its own candidates to fill the offices required to be filled, there would be no organization. The Legislature will act in no such factious manner. When it comes together, the Representatives will look at such questions as must present themselves in their practical bearings and when the time for action comes will unite in making such an organization of the State Government as is practicable, and at the same time secure the general welfare of the State. We say they will do this because we presume of course, that the men who have been elected to the Legislature, are sensible, patriotic men, who will not shrink from the discharge of plain, constitutional duties.

So far as the Whig Representatives are concerned, we have the fullest confidence in their wisdom and fidelity to principle. We are not afraid that they will sell themselves to the Morrill men, or be sold to the friends of Mr Pillsbury. Whatever course they see fit to adopt we have no doubt will be taken with a view of securing the best interest of the State, and will be the natural result of a wise and prudent consideration of their position, and the circumstances in which they come together. Their constitutional duties will require them to make elections from Democratic candidates to fill some vacancies at the Senate board, and in making those selections it is morally certain that they will choose to support those candidates who agree with them in as many points as possible, and whose election, while it shall be for the interest of the State, shall also be best for the party with which they are connected.

The question is frequently asked, "Who will be Governor?" This question time will answer. For one, we hope our present worthy and acceptable Chief Magistrate may be selected, and we have no doubt that his election by the Senate would be regarded with general satisfaction. But we are not going to anticipate the developments of time.

The Waterville Mail states that an Irishman, employed in the construction of the S. K. Railroad, in Fairfield, was shot last week under circumstances that have produced much excitement in the vicinity. While returning from his work, he stopped and took a rail from the road-side, belonging to Mr Samuel H. Jacobs, with the design of using it for fuel. Just as he had shouldered the rail, a man started from concealment, within two rods of him, and levelled a double-barrelled gun at him. He had barely time to beg the man "for God's sake not to kill him," when a charge of shot was lodged in his legs. With loud outcries for help, he continued an alarm, when the contents of the other barrel were lodged in his breast and arms. The author of the deed then fled, and the wife of the Irishman, with others who heard the alarm, arriving at the spot, the wounded man was taken to his house. A physician was called, who extracted a large number of musket shot from his breast, arms and legs, and gave opinion that his wounds were not mortal.

The wounded man immediately committed his family, consisting of a wife and six or seven children, to the maintenance of the town of Fairfield, whereupon suit was commenced by the town against Mr. Samuel H. Jacobs, who was charged with the deed. His property was attached, and he was bound over to a higher court in the sum of one thousand dollars, before Joshua Nye, Esq. He procured the necessary bail, and was set at liberty.

Mr Jacobs owned the house in which the Irishman lived, and the rails from which he had feloniously taken one for fuel. Two brothers of Jacobs testified that he was at home at the time of the alleged shooting, though others testified to having seen him near the spot, with the two-barrelled gun, of which he was known to be the owner. The Irishman also testified that he recognized Jacobs and called him by name at the time he was shot.

The parties reside near Nye's Corner. Mr. Jacobs is a young man, with a wife and children, and possesses a snug property. A few months since, he returned from a successful trip to California.

The steamer Ocean, from Boston, arrived at Frankfort yesterday, and proceeded at once to discharge her freight. She will leave for Boston on Monday morning.

Three large hogsheads of gunpowder were recently sent to be shipped on board of a steamboat at Cincinnati, labelled as "oil cake."

Navigation Clear!

The steamers Daniel Webster, Boston, and Eastern State left here yesterday morning and succeeded in getting through the floating ice, passing Hampden in merry glee, with bells ringing, colors flying, whistles squealing, and were saluted with the cheers of the people on the shore and solid licks put upon a church bell just landed from a vessel upon the wharf.

At noon a brig was hurriedly launched from the ship yard of Isaac Dunning, Esq, and joined the fleet of vessels that spread their sails yesterday for down river.

This opening of the river by its own force at this season of the year is a marked event, and has probably saved our city from an overflow next spring, and is, on that account, as well as on that of allowing the shipping to escape, a matter of rejoicing and thankfulness.

There were several cases of hair-breadth escapes on the sudden starting of the ice, but we believe no serious accident occurred except to one man, an Irishman, who was drowned.

QUICK WORK.

At about noon, yesterday, while the river was open opposite Dunning's ship-yard, he seized the opportunity to launch a beautiful brig, of two hundred and ninety-nine tons.

This vessel was modelled by Master Jeptha Nickerson, and has been pronounced by good judges of naval architecture, as a gem in that line, and possessing more points of graceful beauty than any craft ever built in this city.

The builder, Isaac Dunning, Esq., has built, rigged and launched this brig in seventy-six days, a dispatch unequalled here, and in thoroughness, strength, beauty and finish, she gives the strongest praise to the builder and the architect.

This brig is coppered to the bends and is owned by Moses Giddings and others of this city, and Capt, Ephraim Pendleton of Camden, who is to command her.

New Hampshire U. S. Senator

We learn from the Concord Patriot, that the Governor of New Hampshire, has appointed Jared W. Williams, of Lancaster, to fill the vacancy in the Senate of the United States, occasioned by the decease of Mr Atherton. Mr. Williams has been twice Governor of New Hampshire, and four years a Representative to Congress. The Patriot remarks that Mr Williams "will be found a firm, reliable and trustworthy Senator, and a zealous, hearty and unyielding supporter of the national administration."

It is stated that the revenue of the Post office department falls short of the expenses by about three-fourths of a million dollars. It must not be thought of that the people shall endure a high rate of postage. Lessen the expenses wherever they may be lessened—strike off all salaries above the fair rates of labor in other departments of business, and if, after all this, the government must make an appropriation, do so.

Cheap postage is in harmony with the operation of all our popular institutions, and an appropriation of three fourths of a million of dollars to sustain the Postoffice Department, if necessary, ought not to be considered a very great tax upon a government that can, to promote the spread of knowledge, expend half a million upon a single printing office, and another half million in getting a ship-of-war ready for a cruise upon the ocean.

Light on the Dark River, or, Memorials of Mrs. Henrietta A. L. Hamlin, missionary in Turkey. By Margarette Woods Lawrence. Boston: Ticknor, Reed & Fields.

Here is a neat volume of three hundred and twenty pages, which possesses a great personal interest to all the friends of its amiable subject, a local interest also to our citizens who remember the labors and activities of Mr. Hamlin while he was connected with the Seminary here, and to the large circle who had an acquaintance with the late Mrs. John Maltby, a sister of Mrs. Hamlin.

Aside, however, from all personal relations and all local causes, this volume possesses claims of deep interest to the true hearted Christian and the friend of Missions. There is a charm in the purity of the style and the heart feeling that pervades it—a glowing spirit of poetry worked to a sincere and devoted piety.

The dedication to the little daughters of Mrs Hamlin is one of the sweetest gems we have met for a long while.

We predict for this work a large sale in our city.

E. F. Duren has this work for sale, at his bookstore near the Post-office.

The editor of the Boston Mail, who knows all about it, from personal experience, declares that the language of Love is universal. Let your heart beat for the Choctaw squaw, a Chinese snub, a French grisette, or a South Sea collection of black hair, yellow skin, and plantation feet, and you can talk to her with the eloquence of an orator, the sweetness of a poet, and the understanding of a philosopher. Love can speak through seven barn doors and several meeting houses.

The New York correspondent of the London Times, writing under date of October 29, has a fierce onslaught upon the administration, and predicts that the cabinet cannot hold together long after the meeting of Congress, and represents the popular feeling against them as being positively awful in its intensity, and thinks that there are not more than ten Senators who will stand by the administration.

An editor somewhere in the west, has become so hollow from depending on the printing business alone for bread, that he proposes to sell himself to some gentleman to be used as a stove pipe.

The Eastport Sentinel states that the Bangor stage, on leaving Eastport on Tuesday, was upset, and several passengers severely injured. The shoulder of Mr. Eastman was displaced and the arm of another man was broken.

There are some exceedingly stylish turnouts now about San Francisco. The horses are brought over the Plains, and the carriages are imported from Newark, at an expense of four hundred dollars for freight alone. It costs three hundred a month to keep a pair of horses in the Pacific metropolis. The hackney carriages are thirty in number, and the regular charge, five dollars an hour.

We are under renewed obligations to the California Express of Messrs Cram, Rogers & Co., for a file of the Yreka Mountain Herald, from which we extract the following items, as showing the character of the country and the people.

"Mr Kits of Greenhorn, while hunting his horse yesterday morning, came upon two grizzlies—an old one with her cub. Having no gun along with him, he returned, and a party started after them."

Tar and Feathers.—An hombre who arrived here a short time since, from Oregon, was treated to a suit of tar and feathers, on Thursday night last, for conduct which richly merited such treatment. We are not in favor of lynch law in general, but there are cases where we think a coat of tar and feathers, and a kind word of advice to leave the country, is entirely applicable.

We understand that this specimen of the genus homo, after receiving his new dress presented quite a grotesque appearance. We hope this will be a warning to all youths of his stamp to keep away from Yreka.

St Louis, Nov. 30

The Salt Lake mail has arrived at Independence, bringing intelligence of the massacre of Capt. Gunnison and part of his exploring party.

An express reached Gov. Young on the 31st of October, from Capt. Morris, giving an account of the massacre which was committed by a party of Indians on Sevier river. The killed were Capt Gunnison, Mr Kean, the topographical engineer, William Parker, a guide, two others, and three privates of Company A, mounted riflemen. The following are the particulars.

Captain Gunnison and twelve of his party had separated from the rest, and while at breakfast a band of Indians, intending to destroy a Mormon Village near at hand, came upon them with rifles and then used bows and arrows.—Shots were returned by the Gunnison party, but they were overpowered, and only four escaped. Gunnison had 26 arrows shot into his body, and when found one of his arms was off. The notes of the survey, which had been nearly completed, instruments, and the animals, were taken by the Indians.

Gov. Young immediately sent Capt. Morris aid to release him from his critical position in the midst of the treacherous Indians, and to endeavor to obtain the lost property.

The party intended soon to go into winter quarters.

A party of Cheyennes surrounded the mail, and demanded nearly all the provisions, which were given up to them.

Senor Gallegos, the Delegate to Congress, has arrived, and left for Washington.

India Street Passenger Station. The Grand Trunk Railway Company have arranged to build a new and spacious Passenger Station, at their India street terminus, 470 feet in length by 120 feet in width to be used exclusively for the Passenger traffic and for the transaction of the business of the company. The present Station House 550 feet in length, 300 at its west end being 70 feet in width, and the residue 50 feet wide, is to be devoted exclusively to freight. This building will be lengthened easterly, as the business of the company may require. It will probably soon have an extension equal to its present length, to supply the increasing wants of the company.—State of Maine.

Health and Disease

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

"Who shall decide when doctors disagree?" No doubt, many will ask this question, as they have done before, and with the same spirit that thousands have in relation to subjects like the one under consideration.

But we pay little regard to the opinion of doctors, so long as we base our arguments on general principles. "Opinion is as fickle as her God," while principles are eternal.

We spoke in our last of the theories of the ancients, which referred to something external—without us—beyond our control entirely, as a cause of premature decay.

It would seem that they never dreamed that it had its origin within themselves—that they were their own governors—that God made them to rule themselves, and set before them the plain, simple fact of right with approbation—wrong with punishment.

It reminds us of the school boy, who, when he failed to give the correct solution to a problem, by simply missing one figure, remarked to the teacher, that it was not a mistake in kine, but in the figure."

Some of the present age refer the causes of their sufferings to something without—beyond their control, instead of their own evil habits and practices.

Thousands of pages have been written upon the deleterious influences of the atmosphere, at certain times and seasons, and speak with mysterious emphasis of the electrical disturbances of the same rendering it pernicious to health. Then at ask with like folly the water that we drink, and frighten their listeners and readers with fearful descriptions of the nature and amount of filth and poison contained in nature's own fountains, thus

"Taxing the elements with unkindness."

If this be true, well might the poet ask—

——Hath He
Whose workmanship we are, no more regard
Or care paternal for His creature man
Than thus to jeopardize, on ruin's brink
The fair and beauteous fabric of His hand?
Whence shine creative wisdom, power and skill
In one of brighter hue than all the vast
Of nature's splendid scenery can boast?

No, we do not believe it. All nature, too, gives back the answer, in tones too plain to be mistaken. Her vegetables die not, but ripen. Her forest trees wait long years for the woodsman's axe before they fall—they die not young. The kingly lion, the coward wolf, the wild boar, and all undomesticated animals die of old age or by accident. Still, the vegetables live and flourish in the poison air and drink the contaminated dew of heaven with seeming impunity! And the tenants of the forest appear to withstand with remarkable power the ills which we have spoken!

Again, we say, then, that such theories as these—theories that refer to something unconnected with the habits of man as a cause of his "after infirmities" are replete with folly, and of those we have last spoken as being blasphemous!

In our next we shall speak of some of the true causes of this prodigious anomaly, this strange deviation from what appears to have been intended concerning the life of man.

S.

The dismissal of the Rev. Dr. Maurice from his theological chair at King's College, London University, excited great attention among the Evangelical party. The heresy of which he is accused, is that he does not believe in the eternity of punishment, but, hopes that God's love is greater and more universal than the wickedness of men.

DEATH

Boston, Dec 2

The wife of Hon S. H Walley, member of Congress from Boston and Roxbury district, died last evening.

FROM WASHINGTON

New York, Dec 2

The Washington correspondent of the Courier & Enquirer states that Government received dispatches by the Atlantic, but that no definite action had taken place in regard to the treaty for the settlement of the fishing question. It is hoped that the Europa, now nearly due, may bring certain information as to the views of the British government upon this important subject.

The same correspondent states that the Secretary of the Treasury in his annual report proposes to reduce the duties on customs to the extent of $7,000,000, principally by adding the free list to this amount. Salt which now pays a duty of 20 per cent and yields $200,000, is among the articles put on the free list.

SETTLEMENT OF THE METHODIST CHURCH PROPERTY QUESTION

The complete and satisfactory settlement of the late bitter and protracted controversy, as to the division of the Methodist church property between the Northern and Southern sections of that denomination has been officially announced. The precise terms of settlement will not be made public until after the withdrawal by consent from the law courts, the suits therein pending, but it is understood that the property is to be equally divided between the North and South. It is also intimated by parties professing to be well informed on the subject that there is a good prospect now of a complete reunion of the Methodist churches.

Maine Gold.—We have more information about the mining prospects in Franklin County. A gentleman from Phillips yesterday informed us that the original discoverer of the gold contemplates mining with fifty hands the coming season. A boarding house is being erected in the vicinity, and the builder has engaged to board the workmen. It is rumored that $800 of gold have been taken from these mines the past season, and not much doubt is entertained of the correctness of the rumor.—Portland Advertiser, 30th.

The American Consul and minister at Valparaiso had chartered the Chilian brig Express, to proceed to the unknown Island on which the Chatham, Capt Snow, was lost in January last and bring off the crew, it still alive as they are among cannibals. The brig was to be manned by an United States Storeship.

The Brazillian government had despatched a special minister to Peru, Bolivia, Equador and New Grenada, for the purpose of effecting a treaty to monopolize the entire trade of the Amazon. The gold discoveries on the Amazon continued to excite great interest.

The Ontario Times says that 1200 barrels of apples have been shipped at Canandaga for eastern markets and the season is not yet over. The railroads have thus furnished the farmers of Ontario country the means of sending to market a product which must otherwise have been nearly valueless.

John Martin, a hand on the Portsmouth and Concord Railroad, was killed near Epping Depot on Saturday evening. He was connected with a hand car, which was run into by a train, and in trying to save the hand car he lost his life.

On Friday night the dwelling house of Mr John Hooper, at South Saint George, Maine was destroyed by fire, and Mr H. was burned with the building. He was an old man, and lived alone.

New York, Nov 30th.

A Washington despatch says that Secretary [Guthrie, I think—it is broken up] has been in correspondence with the comptrollers and auditors touching the large outstanding balances due the United States. This indebtedness of the government amounts at this time to $101,583 000, and $70 000 000 is due from one branch of the service, or on the books of one of the comptrollers.

"I DIGEST!" Such is the true meaning of the word "PEPSIN," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, or GASTRIC JUICE, prepared by Dr J. S. HOUGHTON, of Philadelphia, from the fourth Stomach of the Ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders GOOD EATING perfectly consistent with HEALTH. See the figure of the Ox, in another part of this paper.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood, in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists, but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far as every purgative medicine reduces the strength when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body, and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine.

McFarland's BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF SAFES!

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the public to the above, the qualified safeguard of property—proof against the devouring element of fire as well as the most skilful burglar. To MERCHANTS, JEWELLERS, and BANK DIRECTORS, we would only say examine them and the proofs and you will be convinced of their superiority over all other manufacture.

Our business is done in a plain, straightforward way without resorting to humbug or large talk. Below is one of the many testimonials we are daily receiving from all parts of the country, and which speaks for itself. Messrs Pond & Hitchcock's Oil Store was situated directly under the Pearl st House and was totally consumed in that great fire o August 23d.

New York, Aug 23 1853.

Messrs Wm McFarland & Co

Gents—It affords us pleasure to inform you that the Fire and Burglar Proof Safe we purchased of you preserved our books and papers at the disastrous fire of the Pearl st House. Although it was covered throughout the fire with burning Rosin, and other Oils and directly under a broken gas pipe, in the most intense heat it remained true to its name and its contents when taken out were not even scorched, and hardly bore the smell of fire. To any one who is in want of a superior Safe a perfect safeguard against fire we cheerfully recommend your manufacture, having had a personal experience of their excellence. Yours truly
B F POND & HITCHCOCK.

Real Estate
For Sale or Exchange for City Property

I have for sale or exchange for city property a most desirable country seat situate in a thriving and increasing Village about eleven miles from the city consisting of a two storied House, Woodhouse and Stable with six acres of most fertile land under high improvement. It has a fine garden lot with Fruit Trees and Shrubbery. The buildings are all finished with a cellar (in which there is a large cistern of soft water) under the whole house—a never failing well of good water within ten feet of the kitchen. The establishment is nearly new, and unimpaired, and was built by a gentleman for a private residence. This is one of the most desirable locations for any good mechanic or for a grocery dealer which can be found in the State.

Green Mountain Vegetable CEMENT.

BROKEN China, Glass, Earthen Ware and Fancy Articles of every description repaired and mended making them as strong as before broken without injuring their appearance.
This Cement which has been proved to be of great strength will be found particularly useful in families. The cement is applied in the same manner of its application and is alone a recommendation. The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it. The variety of purposes for which it may be used are so numerous that it is impossible to enumerate them. Its success in mending Glass China &c is extraordinary, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible articles of this kind may be made useful for years, which otherwise would have been cast away.

The new and splendid steamship YANKEE BLADE 2,250 tons, will sail from New York for Aspinwall, on ... Dec 6th at 3 P M connecting with the new and unrivalled Steamship UNCLE SAM, 1800 tons which will sail immediately on the arrival of the passengers at Panama for San Francisco direct without stopping at any of the intermediate ports. These steamships are vastly superior to any others on the route, in every point but more particularly as to their speed, ventilation and good accommodations.
It is confidently expected that the passage will be made to California in twenty two days, notwithstanding the reports of the runners that the old Mosquito steamers are equal in the speed of this line. Passengers procuring tickets from this office shall have their money refunded, and be provided with a free ticket if the above is not found to be a fact on the arrival of the underwriters.
The traveling public should bear in mind that this is the only Opposition Line and that it is their advantage to patronize it and secure a continuance of the low fare and grow the benefits early. Tickets will be sold 10 per cent less than the lowest rate of the old line. The books of the office will close on Dec 1.

PROFESSOR ALEX. C. BARRY'S

TRICOPHEROUS or Medicated Compound,

FOR beautifying, improving, and preserving the Hair, curing cuts bruises burns stings, rheumatism and all irritations of the skin A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million bottles annually would seem to need no advertisement; but as the thousands who purchase, use and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 930 000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100 000.

This plain, unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than any thing its inventor could say If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases, &c—it would not, of course be so universally in demand The wealthy portion of the public would buy it at any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.

Sold in large bottles price 25 cents at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot 137 Broadway New York and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c

TESTIMONIALS

The following certificate from Dr John C Warren, of Boston, was given 17 years since but will last forever

Boston, Jan 5 853.

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia, have suffered much from the want of a skilful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster to supply this deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath—After some months of observation of his work, I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, and ingenious in accommodating to the variety of cases which occur I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to these important articles

JOHN C WARREN, M D

The undersigned take great pleasure in recommending to the favorable consideration of those who are unhappily afflicted with Hernia, Mr James Frederick Foster, as a skilful and competent person in the manufacture and fitting of Trusses We have employed him (some of us over twenty years) and therefore speak from personal knowledge of his abilities His early advantages his long experience in the business and the large number of individuals whom he has relieved in a variety of cases, render him, in our opinion equal, if not superior, to any manufacturer of the article His father Dr Gideon Foster, of Charlestown, was master of the Poor house in that town for upwards of twenty four years, during which period Mr Foster availed himself of the opportunity, and made application of Trusses to a great variety of cases, with great success, some of which were of a very complicated and distressing character

It is well known to all who have occasion to wear a Truss, that its great excellence consists in its adaptation to the body at the same time relieving the patient. Any ordinary mechanic may make a Truss, but none but a skilful practitioner can apply it in such a manner as effectually, and oftentimes radically cure the complaint

Our experience has convinced us that Mr Foster has thoroughly attained this knowledge The certificates of Dr J. C Warren, and other eminent surgeons which he has shown to us, fully sustain the opinion we here express

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

MR KENNEDY of Roxbury has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple—He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin

Two or three bottles warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of scrofula

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing on the pastures and along old stone walls should cure every humor in the system, yet it is now a fixed fact If you have a humor it has to start There are no ifs nor ands, hums nor ha's about it suiting some cases, but not yours. I peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston I know the effects of it in every case It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts I gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty I have seen poor, puny wormy looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle

To those who are subject to a sick headache one bottle will always cure it It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary when that feeling is gone you will feel yourself like a new person I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to Self Acquired Fame!

DR. JOHNSON'S

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine, notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper publicity, has yet acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world It is entirely of vegetable extract, perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child and alike astonishing and satisfactory, in its effects upon man or beast To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, Give it a fair trial, and we promise, on a radical cure of Coughs Colds Asthma, Bronchitis Whooping Cough Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all Lung Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery in all of which cases it should be used internally The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases Sprains, Chapped Hands, Bruises Burns, and all descriptions of wounds are magical Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach Side, or Bowels, Sore Throat, Piles, &c, by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne, cannot fail of certain and speedy cure The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations as it has done for forty years past We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica—The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough, and bleeding at the lungs, and receiving no benefit from medical aid, in 1848 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption My legs swelled so that I was unable to stand or help myself At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me, and by the use of three or four bottles I was entirely cured, and have since been able to labor every day. I have also for the last twenty years been subject to severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of this complaint I can truly say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life JOHN I. ATKINS

Brewer, Sept. 29, 1852.

DR. JOHNSON: Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated—but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment and by using three bottles, my leg was limbered and strengthened and for a number of years I have been able to use it about as well as the other I consider myself indebted to the use of your Liniment through the blessing of Providence for the use of my leg and would say to others who may need help in this way, try it, and no doubt you will be cured RUFUS CHAPMAN
